Please note that these T&C do not alter any other agreements that you may have with Alén Space.

The term ‘Client’ shall refer to a natural person or legal entity for which Alén Space provides services or products.

If any provision of these T&C is declared invalid or invalidated by a final court ruling, all other provisions in the T&C not affected by said invalidity or invalidation will remain in full force.

Clause 2: Offers and Orders

2.1 Alén Space provides the Client with an accurate offer, based on the Client’s needs, market price, availability of certain items and components and procedures related to delivery. The offer is made on a best effort basis, based on information available, being an estimation with respect to the relevant order, and therefore, shall not be binding upon Alén Space;

Such agreement shall come into force upon signatures by both Parties. These T&C shall in any event be deemed to have been incorporated into such agreement even without these T&C being referred to or attached to such agreement. Alén Space will notify the Client and will communicate an updated supply time based on Alén Space' estimations. The Client has to be aware that in such cases the supply of the product and/or service may be delayed due to governmental authorities' actions, in the EU or in any other state or territory. Alén Space will not be liable for such actions and will not be in violation with respect to these T&C as such actions may cause a change in supply time, costs, supply procedures or other agreed terms. Alén Space will notify the Client in case additional costs will arise related to the supply of the product and/or service due to such governmental actions or restrictions.

Clause 3: Term and Termination

3.1 An order is considered to be fulfilled, or the agreement terminated where applicable, when all work, the exchange of information, documents, products and other material issues, are concluded, with the approval of both Parties, providing that the Client has made all the required payments under the confirmation of the purchase order or agreement;

If so, the Client is responsible for providing such prepared documents to Alén Space in due time if needed. Any expense required to obtain such permits must be covered by the Client.
